

One Thing Different (Paperback)

By Emma Finn

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . ROMPS ALONG AT A TIDY RATE Have you ever wondered what your life might have been like if just one thing had been different; if you hadn't got the break you needed; if you'd gone out with someone other than your wife or husband? Have you ever regretted a missed opportunity and wished you could go back and change things? Or perhaps everything is good for you and the idea of anything in your past being altered fills you with fear? Because little things can have huge consequences. Change one detail and your life might have taken a different path. You might not even recognise yourself. You could be living an entirely different life, for better, or for worse. Kim, Gemma, Samantha, Anna and Christina are five beautiful women who have landed on their feet, with high profile jobs or wealthy husbands. Drunk on wine and candlelight, the friends share an evening, imagining how different their lives could have been if only a single change were made, but there is magic in the air and sometimes careless words can have...
