

Visions of Teaoga

By Jim Remsen

Sunbury Press, Inc., United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 178 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The year is 1790 and Queen Esther, a notorious American Indian matriarch, travels under cover to observe a U.S.-Iroquois summit at the ancient Teaoga treaty grounds. Will she be able to pass on her wisdom - and warnings - to the Indian villagers before the hostile settlers discover her in their midst? Will troubled native girl Sisketung awaken to Esther s truths and see how wrong-headed the brash settler girl Sarah was? Moving two centuries forward, restless tweener Maddy Winter also visits Teaoga, now a quiet riverfront town on the Pennsylvania-New York border. She tunes in to the region s dramatic lost history and soon encounters spirits in the wind. As she gains in wisdom, Maddy longs to take on Esther s mantle of the peace woman, but will she find the courage to do right in her own life? Drawing richly from the historical record, Visions of Teaoga captures a world in upheaval. Readers sit at a native story circle and learn of the tensions and treachery besetting the Eastern frontier. As Maddy and her...
