In other words, the purchasing power of a dollar is so changed since the time these lawyers fixed a schedule of fees in their minds, that they should seriously consider conditions today and rectify their charges. Now, our membership will be interested to know that we asked for copy of all schedules in use by the County Associations, and we received a great many replies, indicating that there is a strong tendency to have a basic schedule of recommended fees, and too, where a schedule has not been adopted there is a general tendency to adhere to the schedule of our Association. Some of our members have suggested that it would be helpful in getting adequate compensation if the schedule of fees were printed in such form as a card, framed, or unframed, and hung in the lawyers' offices. It is recognized that the minimum should not be restricted to the new members of the Bar, but rather to apply as Minimum For All Members, and the maximum to be applied as circumstances warrant. We wish to quote one of the older members of the bar as follows: Since the Schedule of fees was issued I have followed it, and have found in every case, not only no complaint but cheerful compliance on the part of the client. Before that there was more or less bargaining and boasting that so and so would do it for so much...
