One who wants to get joy of book reading especially in very less time can go for it. About The Book Charles Reade made his first appearance as an author comparatively late in life. He was the son of an English squire, born at Ipsden on June 8, 1814, and was educated for the Bar, being entered at Lincolns Inn in 1843. His literary career began as dramatist, and it is significant that it was his own wish that the word dramatist should stand first in the description of his works on his tombstone. His maiden effort in stage literature, The Ladies Battle, was produced in 1851; but it was not until November, 1852, with the appearance of Masks and Faces--the story which he afterwards adapted into prose under the title of Peg Woffington--that Reade became famous as...
