Aren t you tired of all the talking heads on TV screaming for you to buy! buy! buy! and sell! sell! sell! the same stocks day in and day out? Aren t you tired of all the self-important commentators telling you that it s a trader s market ? You should be. They ve been screaming the same thing for decades, all to their audience s detriment. Although companies have zero control over their stock prices, they have almost complete control over how much of their earnings they pay their owners. That s what you are when you invest in a business: an owner. And there s no point in owning a business if it doesn t pay you. Study after study, over numerous time periods, shows that buying and holding dividend paying...
