Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Millennial Star, Vol. 66: September 15, 1904 After I had spoken at our second night s meeting, a gentleman arose and challenged me to a discussion. I told him that before I could accept it, he must tell me his standing in society, and the name of the church to Which he belonged. This he declined to do, whereupon Brother John Lyon, Sen, arose and said he was a Campbellite. Thanking Brother Lyon, I told the gentle man that I would accept his challenge, naming my subject. At the same time I told the audience that I did not think the gentleman would meet me, so if the discussion did not come off, I was not to be blamed. It turned out as I had predicted. There was no discussion, but they sent for Mr. Servier. He came and gave them a lecture, but kept out of my way. The parsons of the various sects now began a bitter war against us, but still our work progressed and members were added to the Church. About this time a new sect arose...

Reviews

This book is definitely not easy to get going on reading through but extremely exciting to see. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. I am pleased to explain how here is the finest book i actually have read inside my individual daily life and may be he best book for ever.
