Camel Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In March of 1975, as New York City hurtles toward bankruptcy and the Bronx burns, newsman Coleridge Taylor roams police precincts and ERs. He is looking for the story that will deliver him from obits, his place of exile at the Messenger-Telegram. Ever since he was demoted from the police beat for inventing sources, the 34-year-old has been a lost soul. A break comes at Bellevue, where Taylor views the body of a homeless teen picked up in the Meatpacking District. Taylor smells a rat: the dead boy looks too clean, and he s wearing a distinctive Army field jacket. A little digging reveals that the jacket belonged to a hobo named Mark Voichек and that the teen was a spoiled society kid up to no good, the son of a city official. Taylor s efforts to protect Voichек put him on the hit list of three goons who are willing to kill any number of street people to cover tracks that just might lead to City Hall. Taylor has only one ally in the newsroom, young and lovely reporter Laura...
