Excerpt from The Resources and Trade Prospects of Northern Ontario: A Special Report Made on Behalf of the Toronto Board of Trade In 1910, as in former years, the tonnage treated in Canada was less than that shipped to the United States for treatment. The Canadian smelters, however, treated ore of a higher grade, with the result that they accounted for a little more than 50 per cent. Of the total tonnage. In 1910 the three Canadian companies which have their plants at Copper Cliff, St. Catharines and Deloro treated ounces. Three new smelting companies, with works at Orillia, Toronto and Swansea, are now entering the market for the purchase Of ore from the Cobalt camp.
