Editorial Oceano de Mexico, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: Spanish . Brand New Book. Mexican poetry has never shied away from satire, brazen humor, and even the risque, a tradition not borrowed but rather inherited Spanish poetry and novels have included references to sex and the scatological for centuries. In Mexico, the genre has also been used to voice biting social critiques. In this pocket anthology, Juan Domingo Arguelles delves deep into Mexico's rudest, sharpest, and rebellious verses.
