

A Love Series

By Bethany K. Scanlon

Ptp. Paperback. Condition: New. 494 pages. A collection of five short inspirational stories: The Prosperity Preacher-An ex drug dealer hides in the Federal Witness Protection Program after testifying against his colleagues. The Bureau finds him a job in a tiny Texas town at the local church as an assistant pastor. With a new name but the same morals, he tries to restart his life. Fate of the Just: the missing manuscript-A divorced homeless mother of one discovers a manuscript in the trash. One the author never intended on being thrown away. Seizing a chance to get off the hot Houston streets, she publishes it in her name. The Bear Trap-Pushing past the almost unbearable pain of her past, Lucille Bear decides that change is her only option for survival. Trapped in a lonely swamp, and unable to make ends meet, she chooses to do the only thing that can pull her out. Silly Women-The little town of Ginger swirled with rumors. Bad ones. And unfortunately, almost all of them were true. Rebecca and Theresa Sims had made a mess of their lives. They were beyond hope until one day an unexpected friendship turned their lives around. Vain Imaginations: a murder...
