Has frustration about not having sex as often as you would like caused a major rift between you and your wife, causing you to shut down and shut her out? You want to talk to her, yet there s always a reason, an argument, or excuse, so you leave it alone. You want to improve the quality of sex in your marriage, but want her to be on board with that without lots of drama. Marriage mentors Mary and Tim Ortiz wrote Why Can t I Talk to Her About Sex for the frustrated Christian married man who wants to be able to practically and openly discuss his sexual needs with his wife and have the relationship that God designed for them to have! Like its counterpart, men are challenged to deal with their issues and frustrations around sex such as feelings of rejection, isolation, and shame. Through the readings and exercises in this marriage and sex book, Ortiz shares real life and practical ways for the frustrated man to be able to communicate with the woman he loves without losing her respect. Sex will no longer be a formality and will be as beautiful as God intended, leaving him asking why he didn t talk to her SOONER!
