Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Wendy, a headstrong, independent woman from Chicago, and Stephen, a single father from Philadelphia both meet an unexpected demise in unrelated incidents. They discover that death is not the end but a doorway to a plane of existence that is much larger than anyone could ever imagine. Not for the timid reader, Hell and Back chronicles their journey through the afterlife to describe the initial horrific experience of entering a domain that is filled with so much pain and suffering; all who exist there beg for the mercy of death which can never be granted. They join a motley crew of adventurers who set out to defeat the Gods that created the universe and to reluctantly restore Satan s rightful place on the throne in Hell because it is a better alternative than the evil that is about to gain power in the worlds of both the living and the dead. Stephen encounters heavenly plateaus that exist beside hellish chambers of torture in this afterlife that encompasses many different worlds, and he discovers a way to travel between those worlds by making the Suicide Run. Satan s brother, Cronus, has taken over Hell, and his army is preparing to enter the world of mankind where Stephen left behind his young son. The adventurers are determined to defeat Cronus. A beautiful angel, Wendy, becomes entangled in the struggle and wins the hearts, minds and loins of everyone on both sides of the battle. The adventure ahead takes the reader from the caves of an ancient ice age to an intergalactic chase through the outer reaches of space. Along the way, the characters witness horror beyond belief, battlefields of blood, love,...
