Colleen Hoover meets Jandy Nelson in this emotional coming of age story. Italy, the mid 90s. Fifteen-year-old bookish, tomboy Leda is dating the bad boy of her dreams. Is it love Is she ready for her first time Leda discovers at her own expenses that life is not a fairy tale and she finds her own way to make sense of darkness, love, and friendship. . . Steamy at times but always authentic, the narration is emotional and gripping, raw and unapologetic in denouncing the hypocrisy of a society that would rather see pregnant teens than having an honest conversation about sex. Funny, moving, brutal, and sexy, this read is recommended to adults and teens alike. Breathtaking Northern Italy, including Padua, Liguria, and the incredible Island of Elba, adds to the charm of this addictive novel. Sex to me was mysterious and omnipresent, just like God. Several of my friends were no virgins, definitely including Nico. The biology and anatomy of the act had been unraveled for me in school with all the pain embarrassment could bring. The many books...
