

The Rules Of Backyard Cricket (Paperback)

By Jock Serong

Text Publishing, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. UK ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book. LONGLISTED FOR THE UK CRIME WRITERS ASSOCIATION STEEL DAGGER AWARD 2017! Serong writes pithy, pin-sharp dialogue. Expertly plotted, and its noirish climax with its dark drama and its final twists, is devastating. Get out and buy this book; it is the best new novel I've read this year -Crime Time (UK) There are moments of sheer delight in the boyhood sequences, where sibling rivalry is painted with unerring accuracy by Jock Serong (winner of the Ned Kelly Award for his novel Quota). A novel of suspense, I heartily recommend it -Shots Magazine (UK) A story of the love and hate within families, of the failures of masculinity, in a cricket context rendered with technical precision. Brutal, perceptive, uncomfortably funny, occasionally breaking into poetry. -- Geoff Lemon on Rules of Backyard Cricket Funny, sad and oddly touching, also riveting. Beautifully written and acutely observed, The Rules of Backyard Cricket is a noir tour de force. Original Australian crime fiction of the first order. --Sydney Morning Herald Pitch-perfect dialogue, and a strong sense of place. A very engaging, and extremely realistic debut novel. --Reviewing The Evidence on Quota A novel of suspense...
