Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Uncover the secrets of how to start dog training your puppy. Dog training your puppy can be a painful exercise without the proper advice. You will waste hours, days if not weeks using the wrong techniques only to find that your dog is more misbehaved than before. Worst still, if you don't train your puppy right he could mature into a dog which is dominant, aggressive and anti-social with other dogs. This could lead them to biting your children or loved ones which could lead to legal ramifications for the owner; YOU. You are ultimately responsible for the well-being and behaviour of your dog. Either you train it right or it gets put down. That's the reality of dog training for puppies when they're still young and trainable. Fortunately, by using the practical advice in this book you can avoid having an aggressive and uncontrollable dog. They will become your best friend, a loving and fun pet that your children can grow old with. That's not all you'll find when you purchase this book. You will also learn: * The one secret trick to stop your dog from jumping on you forever. * Three little-known tactics to accelerate your dog's learning and increase their intelligence. * How to house train puppies the RIGHT WAY. Don't follow this advice and you'll be cleaning up their mess for months, if not forever. * How to treat and affection effectively to make them into a lovable and loyal dog. * Six of the most common misunderstandings of how to start dog training your puppy and how correct them. * The one simple activity your dogs...
