

Fork on the Road: 400 Cities/One Stomach (Paperback)

By Mark DeCarlo

ROWMAN LITTLEFIELD, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Illustrated. Language: English . Brand New Book. A seasoned comedian's love letter to America's food curiosities-the regional cuisines, the culinary oddities, the weird and the wonderful Mark DeCarlo is a [modern-day] Groucho Marx. -PEOPLE Whether it be fish ice cream, kudzu tempura, or even sausage, Mark DeCarlo always wonders, Who the hell thought to eat this stuff the first time? We find out in this hilarious celebration of the genesis of America's most creative and idiosyncratic food traditions, and the people who keep these food traditions alive. Join the master comedian on his journey across the United States to visit these people and their foods in their natural habitats-places like the French Quarter of New Orleans, lush Maui resorts, and the Annual Road Kill Cook-off Festival in West Virginia. From the obvious and beloved (Buffalo wings, Boston clam chowder, hush puppies, and strawberry shortcake) to the bizarre and, well, beloved by some (Rocky Mountain oysters, fried rattlesnake, scrapple, and deep fried Twinkies), DeCarlo takes readers on a rollicking tour of the people and places behind America's greatest food inventions. Each chapter features the story behind a particular food...
