But, I was then informed that the profits from that trade had been from 1 to 40( ) , 000l. a year; which during the nineteen years of the Charter, taking the Honourable Director s (Mr. Grant) own statement, would have been 3,800,000l. sterling in 19 years; certainly a considerable sum, and capable of affording very important aid. Differing entirely from the Honourable Director (Mr. Grant) on this subject, I shall afterwards endeavour to lay before this Court the data from which I have formed contrary conclusions, and it will then be able to judge between us. The Chairman and Deputy, in their letter of the 15th of January, declare, that the trade to India is of little consequence; and yet, in the General Court, they state that it is of importance as an item of income. I am, by subsequent explanation, inclined...
