Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. For centuries sisters Jessica and Tessa have been struggling to share their story. Bound by powerful magic to the grounds of their New England home, the two are cursed to remain there for the rest of time-that is, unless they can get someone to hear their frightening tale. But years have come and gone, and nobody has listened. In fact, no one has ever even heard them, aside from a little girl named Josie-but she left before the sisters had a chance to tell their story. Twenty-five years later, Josie, now a powerful witch with the gift of clairvoyance, reappears with her sister and best friend, hoping to communicate with the supernatural phenomena that lie within. And, for the first time, Jessica and Tessa dare to hope that the curse may be broken once and for all. In a thrilling tale of magic, sisterhood, and the all-encompassing power of love, A Haunting in New England follows two eighteenth-century sisters as they struggle to overcome an age-old curse and connect with the group of women that could serve as their only hope for freedom.
