Seventy-five times, at the end of each chapter, two questions are asked; You Did What and How Many Times Why Mooning, Mardi Gras, a police car, a possible porn star, a naked lady, an angry squirrel, and a hungry alligator are some of the funny, off-the-wall situations that made my life interesting. Here are a few excerpts; What is this finger snapping and why do they jump at your command I have them trained. If they dont do what I say, I shoot them with my rubber dart gun. I proudly said. Charlie liked me to start each day telling everyone something interesting about my jobs from the day before; getting lost, doing something stupid, meeting crazy people or being chased by animals. He jumped up and stood over me, staring down. I sat next to a window that faced the parking lot. Sometimes you really piss me off! Your jokes go just a little too far! In the hall, my little woman was mad at me, again. Thats why I hate to go anywhere with you! Always picking, trying to start something. I told you not to do that when we went in. You sure do look pretty. changing the subject. Asshole! How about those Saints I said as we got on the elevator. This was a surprise. My bride didnt expect a present or have a clue what was in the boxes. Tamara was the only other one who knew. Dad, Mom is going to kill you! Take a forty-year journey that begins with my time in college to the events that happened to me as a telephone technician. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
