It can be read as a standalone but is part of a series) Darius Wilder is a vampire of royal blood. His father is one of the most powerful vampires around. After being ostracized for being gay he s currently on the run from those that would hunt him. Phantom Creek has become his safe haven. The mortuary; his new home, and the people that work there; his new family. Romance hasn t come easy for him and with each failed relationship he prays a little harder that fate will give him a mate of his own. Jirga is a demon bounty hunter. He s the last person you want hunting you down. When Aristotle Wilder hires him to find his son and bring him home Jirga thinks it ll be a simple snatch and grab. Only, he runs into a little snag when executing the job he was sent to do. Darius longs for his fated mate, not just for the companionship but also so he can gain the full power of his royal blood. Jirga just wants to finish his job and move on but Darius complicates that. Will these two be able to work things out and fight the enemy in front of them or will Darius father win? (Warning: Contains sexual content, Man on Man action, and explicit language. Not recommended for those under the age of 18.).
