THE MERCY KILLING THE DEATH OF POETRY

iUniverse. Paperback. Condition: New. 178 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. The trouble with poetry is that no one reads it. Poetry, quite frankly, sucks --or at least that's what we've been led to believe. I have found that, if we have a little fun (but serious fun) picking at postmodern poets, who are read by no one but poor college English majors (No, the professors don't read it!), and try not to take ourselves too seriously, we can have a blast. Now, if you don't get the point of this book, you are probably a blooming idiot and you've got no business thinking about reading poetry. If you're a hypocritical, fundamentalist-type Christian, you might want to mosey on over to the Christian reading section. We discuss some pretty heavy religious issues in this book. If you go, you're a blooming idiot, too. If you buy this book and burn it, you'll fry in Hell. I'll see you as I'm passing through. Gentle Readers, I love each and every one of you as individuals. Buy this book. Don't piss me off! Never be yours truly, William Joy Bragi This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
