At least a week s notice to be given by the Contractor Specification for Permanent Way, No. II.--Continued, to the Engineer as regards inspection of the crossings, which are on no account to be taken to pieces until they have been examined by the Engineer or his deputy, and the Engineer s written certificate only will be accepted as proof that the crossings are considered satisfactory. The Engineer shall have power to inspect the manufacture or works at any time he may think fit during their progress, and to reject any parts he may consider unsatisfactory, and the Contractor shall immediately replace these at his own expense. Switches (see Plates).--The contract includes the supply and delivery of the whole of the rails, chairs, bolts and nuts, rods, lever-boxes, weights, pins, cotters, and all other parts and materials requisite for the thorough completion and working of the switches. The stock and tongue rails of the switches are to be what are called filled rails. Templates, gauges, or samples of the filled rails, fish plates, fish bolts and nuts, and nuts, keys and spikes will be supplied to the Contractor. The filled rails are to be of the very best description, made from cold-blast iron approved by the Engineer, both as to material, mode of manufacture, make and finish; the rest of the wrought iron is to be of the very best hammered scrap. The cast-iron is to be a strong and good...
