Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed the Department of Energys (DOE) fiscal year (FY) 2000 performance plan, which was submitted to Congress as required by the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993, focusing on the: (1) usefulness of the agency's plan for decisionmaking; and (2) degree of improvement the agency's FY 2000 performance plan represents over the FY 1999 plan. GAO noted that: (1) DOE's FY 2000 annual performance plan provides a limited picture of intended performance across the agency, a general discussion of strategies and resources the agency will use to achieve its goals, and limited confidence that agency performance information will be credible; (2) while the plan is clearly linked to the strategic plan, the strategic plan does not always provide quantitative goals and objectives that show what DOE plans to accomplish; (3) as a result, it is difficult for the user to determine whether the annual goals are reasonable and to measure how the Departments annual performance compares with the strategic plans goals and objectives; (4) while the plan links annual performance to the program activities...
