Excerpt from Brown Alumni Monthly, Vol. 63: February 1963 At least one fraternity on campus readily accepts this new challenge from University Hall. The terms just another house and just any other man are not applicable to this particular society. It has a proud history of diversification, and it can always benefit from a little more. There is one aspect of the new housing program which has been overlooked, or at least omitted in the referenced article. The present policy of fraternity rental payments to the University for communal rooms should be discontinued. Now that all students will enjoy those privileges formerly made available to so few, would it be at all fair to tax a minority for what the majority receives free?
