Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An obviously uncanny story, which gently evokes fiction from the logical analysis of every exploit of both protagonists, Juan Martin and Carolina, it could only be performed without any of them being aware; but in this novel, madness becomes conscious and the worse of is that, the consequences seem precede its causes over a story that will make the reader feel every sensation possible from the most evil to the most romantic, hopefully, in this work of fiction. Caamano Rodriguez and all emotions handled over 4 break points of the story where the unpredictable happens in each of them. Well, we might as well be thinking that societal transformations have led us to make the unit a synonym of love, instinctive sadomasochism, a source of pleasure, aggression, a sign of affection and passion synonymous with the replication. Even the most innovative psychological techniques are ineffective to cure a love so great that has been transformed, deferred, distorted, molded in many other ways and its perceptions. In the end the reader may wonder whether the events in the story have not gone through his unconscious mind before reading the book. Again, all the events in this story will help to avoid suffering from a suicidal manner or increase happiness through forced domination of the couple love, yet unanswered. To paraphrase the writer, Rafael Carralero, creator of the prologue of this work, psychology and philosophy underlying an environment, it is a linear discourse with little, almost nil, leaks to the past or future, because the narrator - protagonist does not count, nor interest either temporary magnitudes, what matters now wants that depends on the direction of existence. There...
