Against her better judgement, Carrie Rodgers pretends she's her twin sister while being escorted to a children's hospital gala by Rick Marshall, an up and coming real estate developer in Atlanta. What she didn't count on, as her sister's substitute, is a night of passion. Rick doesn't tolerate liars but he's willing to imply his and Carrie's relationship is more than it is to close a career defining deal. Having the right woman on his arm could tip the scales in his favor, but he's not prepared for his heart getting caught in the balance as well.
