Dover Publications Inc., United States, 2003. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Acclaimed as one of Conrad s finest literary achievements, this gripping novel deftly depicts the political turmoil of nineteenth-century Russia and follows the dramatic developments in the life of a student, Razumov, as he prepares for a career in the czarist bureaucracy. In a plot that twists and turns, Razumov unwittingly becomes embroiled in a revolutionary conspiracy when he gives refuge to a fellow student who assassinated a public official. Increasingly enmeshed in the radical s political intrigue, he betrays the anarchist who had placed blind faith in him. The authorities then dispatch Razumov on a mission to spy on the revolutionary s sister and mother. A fascinating character study, Under Western Eyes hauntingly reveals Razumov s preoccupation with questions of decency and accountability when confronted by the equally powerful values of human integrity and moral strength.
