

Through Prison Doors

By Stanley M Myers

Outskirts Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What if you were suddenly faced with the loss of your identity, the loss of friends and close family relationships, the complete loss of freedom and control over your own affairs and the loss of all of your previously devised future plans in a single moment? How would you react to such horrendous losses? In Through Prison Doors, the author describes a similar scenario, involving the true life experiences surrounding his conviction, sentencing, incarceration, time spent in prison and miraculous release, in spite of a supposed life sentence. He details the spectacular ways in which God's Word became alive in his life, and the lives of other inmates, as well as some of the supernatural acts which God used to provide, protect, guide and prepare him for a future which, in the minds of many, he would never see. The author discloses how God clearly spoke to him through a dream, how God restored lost memories from his past, how God grew the prison Church by more than five-fold in a relatively short period of time,...
