From the opening words Your baby is a bad baby the storyline is laced with human frailties and woven together with humor and love. Like every hero's journey, this child's life begins in crisis and is earmarked for destiny with a number of fated events. The reader walks with this family from birth to adulthood as this fact-based drama unfolds with sadness, humor, love, frustration, anger, happiness, and joy. It renews one's belief in the human spirit to overcome almost any obstacle with the power of love. Be prepared to shed some tears as you laugh and cry -- often at the same time.
