Excerpt: . . . and which do not stop as they run, to take on and discharge said property and have a station in the Town of Plainville and the Town of New Britain, at which they stop to take on and discharge said property. The demurrer thus admits that (1) the cars carry property exclusively; (2) that they do not stop between the termini named to take on and discharge property; and (3) that they have two stations in the places named where they take on and discharge property. This traffic is not incident to the passenger traffic. It is not for the mere accommodation of its passengers. It is purely a commercial traffic. Local traffic along the route is not served, nor is this intended. The cars maintain a through freight or express traffic between the points named. The street railway thus serves the same purpose as the steam road between these points. Its cars are designed to carry property exclusively, as do the steam road cars. It maintains freight stations at the termini named as does the steam road. It conveys property which formerly was conveyed by the steam road and in part by other vehicles. It diverts a part of the traffic of the steam road to the highway. It does not differ materially in its carriage of goods from the steam road save in degree, and in that the one operates on its own private way, and the other mainly on the public...
