Little, Brown Book Group, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In the Britain of a few tomorrows time, physical perfection is commonplace and self improvement has become an extinct expression: all the qualities men and women could aspire to can be purchased prior to birth. GENUS is a time of genetic selection and enrichment - life chances come on a sliding scale according to wealth. For some there is no money or choice, and an underclass has evolved; London s King s Cross, or The Kross as it is now known, has become a ghetto for the Unimproved. In The Kross, the natural, the dated, the cheap and the dull, live a brittle and unenviable existence. But unrest is growing; tension is mounting and a murderer is abroad in these dark quarters. Acclaimed author Jonathan Trigell s third novel is a breathtaking tour de force, exploring a dystopia of the not-too-distant-a future which will leave readers wondering not what if , as the original audience of Huxley s Brave New World did, but when . Praise for Jonathan Trigell: A compelling narrative, a beautifully structured piece of writing, and a thought-provoking novel of ideas. It s a wonderful debut. - Sarah Waters, Chair of the Judges for the John Llewellyn Rhys Prize on Boy A A fine and moving debut novel. compulsively readable. a rare treat The Independent on Boy A Does for extreme winter sports what Alex Garland s The Beach did for backpacking. - Financial Times on Cham.
