Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 176 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Jacqueline Ferrell is a native of Charleston, South Carolina. She is born to the proud parents of Bessie Mae Ferrell and Elijah Ferrell. She is the Fifth child of six children. She has one daughter Elisha Patrice Ferrell. She is a licensed minister and servant of the most High God. She also graduated from Community Bible Institute and Seminary earning her Bachelor degree in Religious Education. In addition, she also earned her degree from Lehman College in Liberal Arts graduating Cum Laude. In which she gives all the glory to God for allowing her to accomplish these great honors. Jacqueline Ferrell is a prayer warrior for the Lord; she is a prophetic intercessor that God has ordained for this season. Minister Jacqueline Ferrell wrote these letters that were birthed out of her spirit. One night she had an encounter with the Lord that changed her life forever. The Lord Himself visited her in an open vision where the light was unlike any other that she had ever experienced. And then He spoke: seek ye first the kingdom of God (Matthew 6: 33) and the second word was anything you ask in My Son (Jesus) Name, I will do it. This book was birthed out of the experiences that followed. God has brought her through struggles and trials, engulfed with the knowledge that Abba (Father) was always there to listen and give directions. She stands on God Gets the Glory, no matter what turmoil may come. God still remains faithful to His word. He will and always will get the Glory. The letters speak to her father in whom she affectionately calls. DADDY This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may...
