Korea's Very First Biblical Devotion from the Greek New Testament New Demand from the Deeply Dedicated in Korea: During the short time staying in Korea I was invited to numerous conferences, lectures, and seminars to teach the Greek New Testament. By those opportunities I shared insights and knowledge from the Greek New Testament. Some of insights were about the Greek language, biblical theology, New Testament scholarship, Greek prose style in Pauline and the Bible in general. Best of all was, however, my exegesis on some critical texts from the New Testament. Such popularity and demand have asked me to put together this brief, and in many ways rough, notes to fellow believers in Christ. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
