Penguin Books, New York, 1993. Paperback. Condition: New. It's been years since Charlie Bradshaw traded in his badge and a steady paycheck for the hardscrabble life of a private eye. Now he's going through a midlife crisis of murderous proportions. A man he helped to convict twenty years ago has been paroled from prison and seems to be out to get him, if the death threats Charlie's been receiving are any indication. Another of his old cases resurfaces - along with a woman's skeleton - when Jacko's Pool Hall is bulldozed. And to top it all off, his long-time, one-in-a-million woman, Janey Burris, wants a commitment. So 'Saratoga Haunting' finds Charlie trying to outsmart the past while staying alive in the present - at least long enough to find out whether he's got a future with Janey. book.
