Then the day comes when the pair are sold to the Albritton stable to learn dressage. Their new owner is cold and calculating with no real love for horses beyond their monetary value. Dancer is faced with a cruel owner and the disdain of the big jumpers in the pastures. Can Dancer cope with her new life? A young girl named Ann enters Dancer s world seeking solace from some bullies of her own. Can Dancer help the girl find her key to happiness? Will Ann and Dancer become best friends? Dancer wonders if a horse can even truly love a human. When the owner goes too far and hurts Dancer, Jetson decides to fight back. Will Dancer and Jetson even be allowed to stay together?
