In book 9 of the Rain Series, Isaac Walker s youngest son is tested beyond measure. but if he can stand the test, a great heavenly reward awaits. Black Lives Matter and Isaac Judah Walker Jr. comes face to face with that reality after two police shootings that take the lives of men who should never have been killed. Judah has created a wonderful life for himself in California, now he must decide if he can step back into his father s world in order to do God s will. But going back home to Ohio is complicated because Marissa Allen, the woman he loved and lost is there. All Marissa wanted was a do-right man. But the way Marissa saw it, the man couldn t possibly do-right if he didn t have God in his heart. She d been forced to reject Judah s love and his promise of forever. But now that he s back home, Marissa is able to see him changing and following after God. If Marissa and Judah can get back the spark they once knew,...
