Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from John Stevens and His Sons, Early American Engineers During the time when his sons were being educated, Colonel Stevens resided in the Summer at Castle Point, Hoboken, and they were obliged to cross the Hudson to school and college by sail or row boats, then the only means of transit. This early experience on the water added to and directed the interest they took in after life in the improvement in steam navigation, and it also led to their becoming devoted yachtmen. Edwin was in his boyhood, when his brother Robert made his early improvements in steam navigation, but after he grew up he greatly assisted his brother. The most notable of his individual improvements was the air tight fire room, patented by him April, 1842, (no. And now in use in all the navies of the world.
