EFFICIENT CBIR USING COLOR HISTOGRAM PROCESSING

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | A Robust CBIR System | The need for efficient content-based image retrieval has increased hugely. Efficient and effective retrieval techniques of images are desired because of the explosive growth of digital images. Content based image retrieval (CBIR) is a promising approach because of its automatic indexing retrieval based on their semantic features and visual appearance. In CBIR (Content-Based Image Retrieval), visual features such as shape, color and texture are extracted to characterize...
