Springer, Netherlands, 1985. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 1985 ed.. 254 x 178 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Oatil the early 1970s monetary econometrics was virtually unexplored territory in the Netherlands. The Bank s econometric research, which I have had the privilege to direct since 1971, sought to map this territory gradually and thus to obtain the el- ements for building a monetary model for the Netherlands. As regards the research strategy, I opted for the performance of studies on specific aspects. The quarterly model MORKMON presented in this monograph may be regarded as the conclusion of this research programme. When building the model and writing this monograph, I made heavy and unre- mitting demands on the staff of the Econometric Research and Special Studies Department. I owe a debt of gratitude to them all. The contributions made by four of them - EA. G. den Butter, A. P. Huijser, P. Kramer and we. Boeschoten - deserve special mention. Summer of 1984 M. M. G.
