Not illustrated. 1860 Excerpt: .proposal is really an impartial one, Lord Granville cannot expect that it will be otherwise than unacceptable to both of the parties concerned. But he is not without hope that both may find, on consideration, that if it does not give them all that they conceive to be their due, it secures to them what is politically or commercially necessary, and places them at once in a position of greater advantage with reference to their peculiar objects than that which they at present occupy. The terms which his Lordship now proposes, are as follows: --1. The Hudson s Bay Company to surrender to Her Majesty all the rights of government, property, c., in Rupert s Land, which are specified in 31 k 32 Vict. c. 105, s. 4, and also all similar rights in any other part of British North America, not comprised in Rupert...
