Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Educational Survey of Lee County Georgia, 1920 The building at Smithville has been enlarged, but in no respect does it meet modern school standards. At Leesburg, besides a very inadequate and unsuitable building for the common school, the high school is housed in the old court house, abandoned several years ago as a county court house. It was condemned as good for nothing but a public school house. The rural school houses are all fairly good buildings of the old-school-house-type, but none of them planned for the purposes of a modern school. They fall far short of all architectural standards for an up-to-date school plant. The photographs published herewith give sufficient idea of their inadequacy without further descriptions. The equipment consists of patent desks, blackboards, a very few maps, sometimes a teachers desk and a globe, and a few charts, etc. No school in the county is adequately equipped. Plenty of well chosen teachers helps are as important and profitable to a school as good tools to a workman, and good teachers will demand conditions...
