

A Baby Changes Everything

By Marci Perrine

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the early 1900 s, a home was opened as a safe haven for young women who found themselves in the family way. They often had no support from the father of the child, and were sent away by their parents to hide the shame of what they had done. In this first installment of the Miss Lane s Home for Young Women series, Tabitha finds herself sent away by her parents while grieving the loss of her baby s father. When she comes to live with Miss Lane, she never expects to find good friends who share the gospel and a good man who she doesn t deserve.
