ESCAPE CREDIT CARDS: PROCLAIMING WAR AGAINST MASTER CARD COMPANIES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book is written with the intent to arm the reader with enough knowledge to make empowering decisions for your financial future. The author wanted to gather and explain some of the confusing information about the laws that are designed to protect the consumer. If you understand the laws that are designed to protect the consumer, then you will understand what behavior and business practices are not okay. You need to know when you have been wronged. Unfortunately, it seems that it the the less educated and the consumer without the knowledge and financial means who are mostly taken advantage of or wronged. This book should give the reader a starting point to understand some of the laws, understand some of the tricks and true cost of credit card use, and give a starting point to file a complaint, get true results, and stop being financially enslaved to the large credit card companies. The author has been researching consumer information for years and has personally learned how to deal with situations in order to get results. Learn how to find an actual person and get results. Learn how to get your voice heard and get a refund. Learn how to use the right words or get to the right person and make things happen. Arm yourself. Educate yourself.
