By Patrick Hodges

Alpha Academic Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Alpha Academic Press is pleased to release the revised edition of Joshua s Island. Winner of the Readers Favorite Book Award for 2015 in the category of Young Adult/Social Issues. With the popularity of the initial release of Joshua s Island, we felt it imperative to release a revised edition with relevant information about bullying. Joshua is the smallest boy in his class. He has been bullied relentlessly for years, and false rumors spread around his school have made him an outcast. Eve is a pretty girl who has just achieved her dream of joining the popular girls clique. The two couldn t be more different. As the two begin their final year of middle school, their lives intersect when they are paired together as lab partners in Science class. At first reluctant to even be around him, Eve soon discovers hidden truths about not only Joshua but their school that turn her world upside-down. The relationship that forms between these unlikeliest of friends will them both on a path of self-discovery, a dangerous path that...
