AZLANDER - SECOND NATURE (PAPERBACK)

Gabrielle Brunsdon, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Puck was an Elven prince who fell into love with a mortal girl, one Christmas day as she lay dying. He followed her soul into the Heavens and beyond . King Richard sought the mysteries of the other-worlds. His story is of the demons he antagonised, of ghosts that pursued him into his lifetimes to follow, and of his pious search for the one true Sovereign. An account is given of his friendship with Puck, as it began in the forests of Nottingham. AZLANDER tells of the spiritual worlds - of dark and glorious beings that crowd the spaces, with divinity and reason. The story journeys through myth and obscurity, walking the path sometimes of gloom and often of beauty. There is the vaguest shimmer of true Faerie that lightly touches the pages, whereupon the astute may catch a glimpse as the thoughts become enlivened by its words. Two guys, one an immortal and one a man - and a single girl - are all stalked by a Demonic Master who seeks to own the earthly realm. There are two natures that coexist side by side - the Physical and the Ethereal world - wherefrom the spirits come and go . Can Puck help save Humanity from the dark being who killed his friends, burnt down his house, slept with his girlfriend and now controls the globe? And who may save Puck? - His dear friend Paracelsus? The Tribunal of Horus? Or the guidance of the Azlan himself? A compelling epic romantic fantasy drama-rama - worthy of reading again and again! About the Author - Gabriel Brunsdon (born 1960) is the author of AZLANDER Second Nature, and is currently residing in Melbourne,...
