Excerpt: . dark, enjoys the honor Of a moon to wait upon her; Venus, though divinely bright, Cannot boast a satellite. This fellow pecks up wit, as pigeons peas: And utters it again when God doth please; He is wit s pedler; and retails his wares At wakes and wassails, meetings, markets, fairs; And we that sell by gross, the Lord doth know, Have not the grace to grace it with such show. This gallant pins the wenches on his sleeve; Had he been Adam, he had tempted Eve: He can carve too, and lisp: why, this is he That kissed away his hand in courtesy: This is the ape of form, monsieur the nice, That when he plays at tables, chides the dice In honorable terms; nay, he can sing A mean most meanly; and, in ushering, Mend him who can; the ladies call him...
