NEW BEGINNINGS (CAMELON BOOK 4) (PAPERBACK)

Natural Health Consulting LLC, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It is their moment in history. The next Camelon generation begins with the passing of King Dewi of Wales, who was slain by marauding Roman legions left in the area. His eighty-year-old granddaughter Creirwy, the Mother Superior of Pembrokeshire abbey, and learns of his untimely demise with a corpse candle. Chaos descends on the world while the surviving descendants of Camelon regroup in secrecy with the help of the sea dragons. King Gerwyn, the cousin of King Dewi, gathers his children and grandchildren as his mother, Queen Joslin, and her brother, King Arthur ascend with the aid of benevolent spaceships. The offspring joyously reunite in an underground portal beneath the abbey. The torch passes to Crierwy. She covertly follows King Gerwyn to Scotland to initially keep an eye on the two most rebellious sea dragons, Gilderoy and Paisley, who have decided to start their own revolution in Scotland. Cued by the thunder and a dream, Crierwy decides to take off on her own. After learning that departing souls have been endangered, she enlists the aid of her cousin Tinka, High Queen of Ireland. Together they remove the lid of the Ark of the Covenant, and summon beneficial aid from an intergalactic dimension. Her sojourn takes her across the continents of the western hemisphere and into the arms of several lovers. Lessons of life, death, and regeneration bring her full circle with the destiny of the human race. Together with Tinka, the cousins transform the promising dream of Camelon into a new kingdom on the Hill of Tara. It is their moment in history. The next Camelon generation begins with the passing of King Dewi of Wales, who was slain by...
