AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Laird Simon Lockhart escapes a siege on Edinburgh castle and spies upon a vulnerable English lass who needs saving from a ruthless lot of English soldiers. Unable to turn his back, he risks the lives of his clan, and jeopardizes his political stance of his sworn allegiance to the relentless English King. Lady Alyssa Percy flees Northumberland to the barbarian lands of the Scots in a quest to discover the truth behind her father's death and the threats of doom dispelled by Baron Cressingham bent on revenge. As their journey unfolds secrets will come unraveled, death will beckon, battles will be fought, and their love will ignite. Both have responsibilities to their families, both have strong ties to their homeland, and both believe their sacrifice is for the better of the other. Is their love strong enough to endure so many heartfelt atrocities? I could not put it down, great action, spellbinding landscapes, rich in historical content, and of course sizzling romance.
