Excerpt: .on the north of the river, being the first house now standing out of town, on the Sedalia road. But the County Court was once or twice held at John Isbell s house, near the spring, on the branch, on the south side of John Failer s farm. A short distance south of the spring, on the ridge in front of Mr. A. J. Wisdom s house, lived C. H. Allen, commonly known as Horse Allen, who was the first Circuit Judge, holding from 1835 to 1837. He located a claim on the bottom, south of Mr. Failer s. It seems he at one time lived on the bottom, near James C. Orr s. He also entered the tract of land at Mr. Dice s, where the town of Osage stood, but his son-in-law, C. P. Bullock, lived on it. His Circuit, (the 6th),...
