Excerpt from Religious Vulgarly: January 18, 1914 I have spoken (1) of social vulgarity, (2) of intellectual vulgarity, lastly I want to speak of religious vulgarity. That is the. Worst of all. Here, too, I mean low ideals of religion, the lowering of sacred things to common levels, the degradation of religion by irreverence. Reverence is the soul of religion, and religion cannot exist Without it. Faith is founded on reverence, worship is the expression of reverence, prayer and praise the utterance of reverence. When reverence ceases religion dies. The third commandment, Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain, is a command against irreverence, for irreverence is profanity. In some of the methods of the Salvation Army we have an illustration of this irreverence. Of the earnestness, sincerity, devotion of those who are at the head of the organization, and the great body of its workers, I have only words of sympathy and admiration. I cannot say the same of some of its methods. The beating of badly strung drums, the blowing of instruments generally out of tune, the shaking of tambourines by dancing Women, is out of keeping with the dignity, the solemnity, the grandeur of the religion of Christ; but these things are of small importance compared With the irreverence and vulgarity of their advertisements.
